16/04/25	John Swinney MSP	First Minister of Scotland	We attended a roundtable convened by the First Minister to discuss with Scottish industry bodies the effects and actions that can be taken following the trade tariffs place by President Trump. During the roundtable we were asked by the First Minister to give an assessment of how the tariffs could impact on salmon sales to the US market and responded with factual information as requested. No registered lobbying took place during the roundtable session.
