

Date of engagement	Name of individual(s)	Role of individual(s)	Subject of discussion
14/08/2025	Daniel Johnson MSP	MSP for Edinburgh Southern and Scottish Labour spokesperson for economy	Attended a roundtable, organised by Prosper, to discuss technology, its impact and opportunity for helping grow the Scottish economy.
08/09/2025	Kirsty McNeill MP	Parliamentary Under-Secretary of State for Scotland	Scotland Food and Drink Partnership showcase in Dover House, attended by Salmon Scotland and member companies, along with representatives from across the food and drink sector
12/09/2025	Angus Roberston MSP	Cabinet Secretary for Constitution, External Affairs and Culture	To raise the volume of Scottish salmon exports which fly out of London Heathrow and to impress upon the Scottish Government the opportunity to grow Scottish port exports for volume growth.
12/09/2025	Mairi McAllan MSP	Cabinet Secretary for Housing	To raise the importance of the salmon sector's role in policies for economic growth, and the issue of rural housing and its importance for Salmon Scotland members and the need for government focus in this area.
18/09/2025	Angus Robertson MSP	Cabinet Secretary for Constitution, External Affairs and Culture	To raise the importance of improvements of roads and infrastructure in Fort William to improve the connectivity of Salmon Scotland rural communities.

18/09/2025	Michelle Thomson MSP	MSP for Falkirk East	We raised the need for parliamentary reform and greater transparency and scrutiny of the regulatory bodies which report to the Scottish Government, alongside the wider context of delivering business growth in Scotland.
18/09/2025	Ivan McKee MSP	Minister for Public Finance	We raised the positive economic potential following the Scottish Government's decision to give approval for a planning application submitted by our member company, Loch Long Salmon.
29/09/2025	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Anas Sarwar MSP • Jackie Baillie MSP • Douglas Alexander MP 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Scottish Labour Leader • Scottish Labour Deputy Leader • Secretary of State for Scotland 	As part of a wide-ranging discussion on the future needs of Scotland's salmon sector, we raised the need for regulatory reform in Scotland so that barriers to economic growth are removed, the need for a competitive business environment in Scotland to encourage infrastructure investment, and we highlighted the necessity of long-term sustainability of our sector, which produces the UK's largest food export, supporting 12,500 jobs, enabling rural communities to thrive, and delivering more than £750 million for the economy. We encouraged Scottish Labour, as we do with all parties, to align its policies with sector growth, rural economic resilience, and international competitiveness.