

Date of engagement	Name of individual(s)	Role of individual(s)	Subject of discussion	Location of engagement
04/06/2025	Fergus Ewing MSP	MSP for Inverness and Nairn	To raise the current opportunities for salmon exports, importance of an appropriate regulatory regime, and the Scottish Parliament's need to adopt a more positive attitude to business and business success.	Scottish Parliament, Edinburgh, EH99 1SP
11/06/2025	Craig Hoy MSP	MSP for South Scotland	To raise the sector's request for a supportive policy framework that promotes business and economic growth. Also raised key challenges including rural infrastructure gaps, lack of affordable rural housing, and planning issues affecting Salmon Scotland members.	Scottish Parliament, Edinburgh, EH99 1SP
14/06/2025	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Rachel Reeves MP • Douglas Alexander MP • Ian Murray MP • Kirsty McNeill MP 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Chancellor of the Exchequer • Minister for Trade Policy and Economic Security • Secretary of State for Scotland • Parliamentary Under Secretary of State for Scotland 	The importance of the salmon sector's role in wide ranging policies for growth including international exports. Discussed the benefits of the UK-EU trade deal for the sector and the negative effects of US tariffs on salmon exports.	Dover House, Whitehall, London

19/06/2025	John Swinney MSP	First Minister of Scotland	To raise trade policy affecting Scottish exports across the UK-EU Sanitary and Phytosanitary Agreement, the UK-India trade deal and the continuing relationship with the US administration over tariff policy, requesting the First Minister's support for positive outcomes.	The Royal Highland Centre, Ingliston, Newbridge, Edinburgh, EH28 8NB
19/06/2025	Daniel Zeichner MP	Minister for Food Security and Rural Affairs	To discuss how the UK Government can help the sector continue to grow international exports, including the benefits of the UK-EU deal and the negative effects of US tariffs on salmon exports.	The Royal Highland Centre, Ingliston, Newbridge, Edinburgh, EH28 8NB
19/06/2025	Mairi Gougeon MSP	Cabinet Secretary for Rural Affairs and Islands	To highlight the importance of the continuing progress on regulatory reform given the Scottish Parliament's Rural Affairs and Islands Committee report and to provide further information on the £1 billion investment that Scottish companies have made in fish welfare and standards since the last parliamentary committee report.	The Royal Highland Centre, Ingliston, Newbridge, Edinburgh, EH28 8NB